

Boys bowling

The Enquirer announces 2019 all-stars for Greater Cincinnati and Northern Kentucky boys bowling.

Ohio Division I

Bowler of the Year

Nolan Blessing, La Salle — Blessing was a first-team all-Ohio selection and was a GCL-South first-teamer for the second consecutive year. The sophomore was a sectional runner-up, then finished third at districts and sixth at state. He also bowled a 300 game this year.

Coach of the Year

Dave Sievers, Elder — Elder had a historic year, winning its first-ever district championship and qualifying for state for the second time in program history and first time since 2008. Sievers, named the GCL-South Coach of the Year for the third time in four years, led the Panthers to its second-straight conference crown and a fourth-place finish at state.

First team

Nolan Blessing, La Salle

Ryan Kaffenberger, Elder

Ethan Rowe, Middletown

Cameron Bocker, Elder

Gaege Feix, Talawanda

Jacob Toelke, La Salle

Evan Williams, West Clermont

Chase Francisco, Oak Hills

Travis Boehl, Northwest

Elijah Dunigan, West Clermont

Austin Grammar, Western Brown

Gabe Taulbee, Lebanon

Kian Encarnacion, Mason

Zach Saupe, St. Xavier

Maxwell Pierson, Northwest

Second team

Grant Pickard, Wilmington

Jonathan Davis, Mason

Matthew Oberlin, Kings

Austin Vanoss, Fairfield

Cooper Miller, Ross

Aaron Tucker, Harrison

Nathan Sexton, Oak Hills

Daniel Gross, Northwest

Honorable mention

Colerain: Jeff Valis; Elder: Jacob Hickey; Fairfield: Thomas Dashley; Hamilton: Alex Deaton; Lebanon: Noah Pennington; Mason: Damian Sauer; Middletown: Austin Smith; Oak Hills: Owen King; Princeton: Cody Carlson; Talawanda: Jake Michael, Jarrett White, Aiden Lingsch; West Clermont: Jarryd Forthuber, Bryce Goad; Wilmington: Elijah Martini.

Ohio Division II

Bowler of the Year

Alex Jones, Batavia — The junior was second-team all-Ohio and first-team all-SBAAC American Division. Jones finished third at districts and seventh at state.

Coach of the Year

Randy Stacy, Middletown Christian — Stacy was named the Metro Buckeye Conference Coach of the Year after leading Middletown Christian to an MBC and sectional championship. Middletown Christian narrowly missed out on state, finishing fifth at districts.

First team

Alex Jones, Batavia

Nick Young, Badin

Tommy Averwater, Clermont Northeastern

Eric Hamilton, Deer Park

Austin Harvey, Taylor

Sam Rote, Middletown Christian

Second team

Josh Swartz, Middletown Christian

Elijah Keyes, Norwood

Preston Clark, Batavia

Kevin Gaston, Fenwick

Kaleb Franklin, Georgetown

Aiden Poe, Georgetown

Brayden Godbey, Reading

Collin Fritz, Cincinnati Christian

Dylan Buerger, Mariemont

Honorable mention

Blanchester: Orin Potts, Josh Allen; Clermont Northeastern: Matt Miller, Jered Glancy; Fenwick: Sean McCarthy; McNicholas: Andy Farmer; Middletown Christian: Levi McKlurin; Norwood: Brandon Rains; Roger Bacon: Brian Caldwell; Wyoming: Luke Henke

Northern Kentucky

Player of the Year

Jon Cummins, Simon Kenton— The senior averaged 233 during regular-season NKAC matches, then in the postseason won the Region 5 and state singles championships, becoming the first Northern Kentucky male to win a state singles championship. He is also the first male player to win two regional singles titles in Northern Kentucky.

Coach of the Year

David Hampton, Simon Kenton— He led the Pioneers to the Region 5 team championship.

First team

Alex Bach, Highlands

Cameron Bechtol, Campbell County

Grant Brock, Campbell County

Jordan Cole, Highlands

Jon Cummins, Simon Kenton

Gunner Gabbard, Highlands

Austin Hitt, Campbell County

John Ivey, Simon Kenton

Alex Radford, Dixie Heights

Rieley Ulanday, Cooper

Second team

Trevor Colvin, Pendleton County

Micah Corman, Dayton

Jared Gallagher, Covington Catholic

Andrew Melching, St. Henry

Noah Miller, Campbell County

Nick Owen, Simon Kenton

Zachary Owen, St. Henry

Nathan Qually, Cooper

Aidan Vickers, Lloyd Memorial

Kyle Zamborsky, Ryle

Honorable mention

Campbell County: Cody Brown, Joe Bush; Covington Catholic: Will Clark, Charlie Smith, Ian Ward; Dayton: Zach Wardia; Dixie Heights: Luke Cottongim; Highlands: Perry Daniels; Jonathan Egan; Newport Central Catholic: Johnny Powers; Pendleton County: Koby Brewer; Caleb Fasse; St. Henry: Paul Deis, Garrett Manahan; Simon Kenton: Jacob Billiter, Nick Owens.

Girls bowling

The Enquirer announces 2019 all-stars for Greater Cincinnati and Northern Kentucky girls bowling.

Ohio Division I

Bowler of the Year

Sophia Fischer, Northwest — Fischer averaged a score of 216.7 for the season, finishing 12th in the state tournament. The senior was named All-Ohio honorable mention and finished third at sectionals and seventh at districts.

Coach of the Year

Jim Robb, Seton — Seton punched its first ticket to state since 2010 with a sectional championship and third-place finish at districts. The GGCL co-champion Saints finished sixth at state.

First team

Ali Breig, Seton

Lexi Stewart, West Clermont

Ashley Bushman, Mercy McAuley

Jenna Goodman, Northwest

Madison Littellmann, Seton

Sophia Fischer, Northwest

Paige Weitz, Sycamore

Second team

Olivia Hensley, Seton

Meaghan Huffer, Fairfield

Ashley Hanlon, Lakota West

Amanda Rearick, Lebanon

Mya McCreary, Oak Hills

Tai Cumberland, Lakota West

Lilly Arvin, Hamilton

Honorable mention

Colerain: Erika Stohr; Fairfield: Lauren Zink; Hamilton: Madison Detherage; Lebanon: Hannah Rearick, Kelsey Funderburg; Mercy McAuley: Chrissy Cook, Cara Campbell; Middletown: Emily Cupp; Milford: Reaghan Kaylor; Oak Hills: Mackenzie Harbin; Seton: Abby Baker; West Clermont: Taylor Neal, Darby Campbell; Wilmington: Ariel Comberger

Ohio Division II

Bowler of the Year

Crystal Wilson, Cincinnati Christian— The sophomore qualified for state with a seventh-place finish at sectionals and a third-place tally at the district meet. Wilson was a first-team Miami Valley Conference selection for the second-straight year.

Coach of the Year

Ken Peters, Cincinnati Christian— Peters, named the MVC's Coach of the Year for the second time in three years, led Cincinnati Christian to a sectional title and a fifth-place finish at districts, where the Cougars finished just eight pins away from qualifying for state.

First team

Chelsea Hammer, Deer Park

Crystal Wilson, Cincinnati Christian

Caitlyn Uecker, Batavia

Max Creech, Seven Hills

Lindsey Carney, Cincinnati Christian

Second team

Abby Markworth, Seven Hills

Maddie Porter, Cincinnati Christian

Hailey Long, Williamsburg

Rylynne Jenkins, Reading

C.C. Goldizen, Williamsburg

Honorable mention

Bethel-Tate: Rylee Randolph; Cincinnati Christian: Ashley Veldkamp; Clermont Northeastern: Morgan Miller, Michayla Eifert, Alyssa Ferguson; Goshen: Paisley Frye, Melody Singleton, Erica Tomes; Taylor: Eve Becker, Ella Harvey

Northern Kentucky

Bowler of the Year

Mirena Combs, Newport — Combs, two-time Region 5 singles champion, averaged 175 during the regular season but was in top form in the postseason, finishing second in the regional tournament, and become NKY's first state champion in the girls tournament. She averaged 199 in the postseason, including 230 in the state championship stepladder matches.

Coach of the Year

Josh Hitt, Campbell County —He led the Camels to the Region 5 championship.

First team

Abby Bach, Highlands

Skylar Brinkley, Boone County

Ashley Bruce, Beechwood

Jade Combs, Cooper

Mirena Combs, Newport

Kaylee Hitt, Campbell County

Erin Parrott, Highlands

Kara Strong, Boone County

Ranelle Ulanday, Cooper

Emrel Woody, Highlands

Second team

Breanna Brandt, Cooper

Morgan Briede, Notre Dame

Mariah Bush, Campbell County

Emmee Depenbrock, Notre Dame

Emily Desentz, Simon Kenton

Jenna Elgowsky, Cooper

Heather Jackson, Simon Kenton

Tessa Killen, Highlands

Alison McDonald, Bishop Brossart

Keerstyn Roedig, Scott

Jadyn Taylor, Campbell County

Sidney Vaught, Scott

Kayla Watkins, Campbell County

Annabelle Wilson, Notre Dame